The discount will remain in place throughout the life of the title. In the event the listed title contracts with a national distributor the listed title guarantees to TNG the continuation of the specified discount. Any changes to the outlined terms must go through the national office for review. Any previous local agency agreements are hereby overridden by the terms stated within this document. Previous local agreements were shared with TNG National Office in detail and were no better than those listed herein.

The duration of this agreement is contingent upon acceptable sales levels in each of our agencies. If the title falls below an acceptable level, each agency has the right to discontinue distribution via written notification to the publisher. Each TNG location determines set up fee charges and collection.
